An Ice Cream Social will be held at Bart’s Café

Contributed by Greening Greenfield Energy Committee
Saturday, 13 October 2007

WHAT:

An Ice Cream Social will be held at Bart’s Café, Greenfield, MA to:

1) Ask supporters of the Greening Greenfield Campaign to talk about their visions of what a “Greener Greenfield” would look like;
2) Thank those who have participated in the Greening Campaign to date by investing in the New England Wind Fund; and
3) Invite attendees to become more involved in the Campaign.

WHO:

The Greening Greenfield Campaign is a collaborative project of the Town of Greenfield and the Greening Greenfield Energy Committee. Mayor Christine Forgey is sending Sandra Shields, Director, Department of Public Works (DPW), to deliver her thanks to the Campaign supporters, reiterate the Town’s commitment to the Greening Greenfield Campaign, and talk about what the DPW is doing.

Other presenters:

Nancy Hazard, Chair of the Greening Greenfield Campaign
Tom Murphy, Chair of the Greening Greenfield Energy Committee
Sandra Boston, Public Education sub-committee contact person
Carolyn McLellan, Chair of the Greening of Greenfield Tree Committee
Bart’s Homemade Ice Cream and Bart’s Café will be honored for their leadership role in the Campaign, and for hosting the Ice Cream Social.

WHEN: October 14, 2007, 2-4pm

WHERE: Bart’s Café, 286 Main Street, Greenfield, MA

AGENDA: 2:00 Tea and coffee served
2:20 Presentation
