Springfield, MA – The Springfield Falcons, proud members of the American Hockey League, announced today that left wing Radek Smolenak has been reassigned to their ECHL affiliate, the Johnstown Chiefs.

Smolenak played in two games for Springfield this past weekend not registering a point. Smolenak has played in six games with Johnstown this season and has averaged a-point-a-game collecting four goals and two assists for six points. The 6-foot-3, 204-pound native of Prague, Czech Republic was tied for the Chiefs team lead in goals with four at the time of his recall to the Falcons. Smolenak started the 2006-07 season in Falcons training camp after scoring 42 goals in 65 games with Kingston of the Ontario Hockey League last year.

The Falcons will host a pair of games this weekend when the Portland Pirates come to town on Friday, followed by the Manchester Monarchs on Saturday. Tickets for both games can be purchased by calling the MassMutual Center Box Office toll free at 1-800-639-8602 or by logging onto Ticketmaster.com. All Falcons games can be heard live on The Zone Sports Radio 640 AM with the voice of the Falcons John Michael. All games can also be seen through the B-2 Network.
